Taxpayer on Proposed Legislation. EDITOR CAPITAL JOURNAL -- I see under your review of legislation No. 111 that you have quoted several of our state papers in reference to needed legislation to be had at our next legislature. I agree with the authors and yourself that there is a great need of change in many of the laws of Oregon. But some of the changes asked for I don't agree with. I shall use what little influence I have to prevent the repeal of what is known as the mortgage tax law. In my opinion it is law, and I therefore conclude to use believed by many, is made to do a homely phrese, as Sam Jones too much work, and unless she is soon as this vital point had been season.' hit.
